Help Keep the Spirit of Camp Fire Central Coast Alive with a Membership Today

Your adult membership helps Camp Fire USA Central Coast Council provide local programming to young people in both clubs and camps.

Classic Clubs

Dozens of local clubs sprout up each fall for youth to take part in weekly meetings with planned curriculum. They learn leadership skills, arts and crafts, nature study, community service, and take field trips to broaden their horizons and earn precious emblems representing their achievements.

Camp Tacanneko

Operated by volunteer parents, the 40 year old day camp is held one week in the summer in Arroyo Grande. The children are busy with new activities every hour from arts and crafts, swimming, dramatic play, and outdoor skills. The week concludes with camp performances for parents.

Camp Natoma

For over 70 years a unique rustic experience for children takes place in the Adelaida hills where everyone sleeps "under the stars". This summer residence camp offers environmental hikes, swimming, archery, drama, cooking, arts and crafts, singing and much more. Children fall in love with the unique experience of Camp Natoma and often become Counselors in Training.

Join Camp Fire Today and Support the Future Because Children Are our Most Precious Resources.
